

Northeast Ohio Center of Excellence for mathematics and science education

Kent State University and the Northeast Ohio Center of Excellence for Mathematics and Science Teacher Education Workshop Application

Physics 50195, Special Topics in Physics (2 graduate credits):
Experiencing the Foundations of Physics: Addressing Academic Content
Standards with an Inquiry-Based Approach
July 11 - 15, 2005

Return application to address at the bottom of the form. Use additional sheets if needed.

Name:
Home Address:
Home Phone:	E-mail Address:
School Name and District:
Grade level(s):	Number of years teaching:
Subject area(s):
Prior Physics/Science Course:
Please indicate in a short statement why you are interested in taking the course.
Briefly describe your related experience and interest in teaching science by inquiry.
Please indicate any particular topics that you would like to examine in this course.

The selection committee will notify applicants of acceptance by mail within two weeks of receipt. When accepted, you will also receive instructions for registering for this course.

Completed applications should be sent to Dr. Michael Lee Department of Physics Kent State University, Kent, OH 44242	For more information, contact Prof. Lee. Phone: 330-672-2577 E-mail: mlee1@kent.edu Visit: http://physics.kent.edu/neocex
--	---